Christians working and praying for a nuclear weapons-free world

Come and celebrate 45 years of Christians campaigning!

Ok, we realise that it would be better, really, if we were not celebrating our 45th birthday, and instead were celebrating the end of nuclear weapons. But as long as these immoral, illegal weapons of mass destruction are with us, we will be there, at vigils, at blockades, at meetings, on demos, with our Christian presence, praying for the abolition of nuclear weapons.

And of course we can not do this without you. Nor can we celebrate 45 years without you. So if you are able, please do come along to Friends House on Euston Road on Saturday 10th December. If you can come to the AGM (which is in the morning) you will be very welcome - especially if you come prepared to offer your volunteer services! We would be especially pleased to get offers to join our Executive Council - there's no need to get nominated - you can nominate yourself. Exec meetings happen in London every 6 - 8 weeks or so on a day to suit.

The party will start at about 2pm. We will have guests including Bruce Kent, and we will have cake (but feel free to bring more!). We would like you to bring your memories, and if you have any photographs or old newsletters, leaflets, posters or other items for display that would be wonderful. A member who is unable to come has already sent us a fantastic selection of memorabilia.

So join us on the 10th December. Meet your Exec and office worker (see photo below) and you can even buy a t-shirt or cotton shopping bag! (See page 2)

The Feast of Holy Innocents

This year's Holy Innocents commoration is on 29th December, at St Martin-in-the-Fields, London at 11am. There is a leaflet enclosed with this mailing. It would be good if you could put the leaflet up on your church notice board. And please do come along!

The actual Church Feast of the Holy Innocents is December 28th. Our event is on the 29th for practical reasons. We will assemble in the Porch of St Martins', process into the church, then to St Martin's statue of Baby Jesus which this year is in Trafalgar Square, on to Downing St, finish at the memorial to the Innocent Victims outside Westminster Abbey. The event will be interactive. We want as many children as possible. Times, lunch, etc to be finalised soon. Keep in touch, suggestions welcome.

New CCND goods!

Due to popular demand (well a couple of people anyway!) we have purchased some t-shirts emblazoned with our logo and slogan. These are made from organic cotton in a pleasing creamy colour, and are ethically traded (of course!). There are two styles, a big and baggy uni-sex style in Large and Extra Large, and a fitted style which comes in Medium and Large (which is not so large actually, will fit about a size 16). They are all really soft and the unbleached cotton means you mustn't wash them in soap powders with "optical brighteners" or they'll end up looking a bit whiter than they ought. £12 each.

We also have cotton bags. You will know of course that most plastic bags end up in landfill, some can end up in the sea. Wildlife can suffer; turtles will swallow plastic bags thinking they are jelly fish, birds scavenging on rubbish dump choke on plastic bags. It's not good. So say "No" to plastic bags and carry a couple of our very useful shoppers with you all the time. There are two styles, one with a gusset and short handles useful for heavy shopping and the other with long handles which you can carry over your shoulder. Again they are made from organic cotton (cotton production is very heavily dependent on pesticides and producers don't often much care about the health and safety of cotton-pickers) and ethically made. £3 each.

We still have some of the "Robin" Christmas cards but we thought we'd try some blank cards for use at any time. So we used the Picasso peace drawings for a set of 6 cards, two of each design. We hope you like them. £2.50 per pack. There is an order form with this mailing.

Quaker Peace Testimony Fairford

Quakers' testimony to peace is perhaps their best-known attribute. Individual Friends live out this corporate testimony in many different ways. Several people from Gloucestershire Meetings hold a Quaker Meeting for Worship outside the main gate of Fairford USAF Base on the 4th Saturday of each month for an hour from 2pm. Fairford is where the new ultra high tech B2 stealth bomber, the B52 Stratofortress and B1 Lancer bombers are kept. This is not a protest meeting or demonstration but a witness to peace. All are welcome to join us, with the suggestion that warm clothing should be worn and a folding seat brought. Information from Cynthia Barron, 11 Star Court, Pittville Circus Road, Cheltenham, GL42 2GD.

CCND at Synod

CCND Co-chair Micheal Pulham is pictured (below) outside Church House lobbying Synod members and getting signatures on the "No Trident Replacement" petition.

We got quite a few signatures including one or two Bishops.

There is a copy of the petition enclosed - you have until next March to return it so there is plenty of opportunity to get loads of signatures. If you need more copies get in touch.

UK people oppose developing new weapons system

When presented with the estimated cost of replacing Trident, a majority of the British public opposes the development of a new nuclear weapons system, according to a recent poll done for Greenpeace. The British public understands that money would be better spent on defeating poverty at home and abroad, and providing for employment, education and health.

Add your voice to the campaign to say no to Trident and join the ten signature challenge. CND and CCND are urging members and supporters to each collect ten signatures for the petition so that we can send a clear message to Blair: No Trident Replacement. There is a petition with this mailing, contact CND on 020 7700 2393 for a Trident Replacement briefing.

No Trident Replacement meeting

CND Public Meeting, 6.30 - 8.30pm, Tuesday 6th December, Committee Room 10, Houses of Parliament. All welcome.

CND demands that a full public and Parliamentary debate takes place on the replacement of the Trident nuclear weapons system.

This must include the option of not replacing Trident and a full Parliamentary vote should determine the matter.

A replacement will undermine the Non-Proliferation Treaty - at a time when the latest US doctrine foresees the use of nuclear weapons once again - and will cost the British taxpayer an estimated £25billion.

Join the campaign to say No Trident Replacement! Speakers include:

Clare Short, Labour MP

Michael Meacher, Labour MP

Gordon Prentice, Labour MP

Jeremy Corbyn, Vice-Chair CND and Labour MP

Kate Hudson, Chair CND

Bruce Kent

Baroness Tonge, Lib Dem

Angus Robertson, Scottish Nationalist MP

Elfyn Llwyd, Plaid Cymru MP

Jenny Jones, Green GLA member

November letter

West Midlands CND's letter writing campaign is focussed this month on the renewal of Trident.

This month we are still writing about the replacement of Trident, one of the most important issues to be resolved in this parliament. At present, we are concentrating on having an open and transparent debate, and getting out information to MPs, some of whom know very little about it. So, if you think it appropriate, please send a copy of your letter to your MP. Please write to Rt. Hon Tony Blair, 10, Downing Street, London SW1A 2AA.

Ask that:

- There should be a thorough review of Britain's security needs and whether a replacement for Trident is really the best way to address them.
- The review should consider how to enhance national and international security.
- There should be an open and honest debate on Trident replacement. Parliament should be given all relevant facts, including the full costs of maintaining a nuclear system.

Say that, while we are attempting to establish democracy in Iraq, we must lead by example - democracy can function only when there is openness, transparency and knowledge.
